

25th June 2015

Dear Parent,

City of London Festival Children's Parade

Photo Permission

Each midsummer, the City of London Festival animates the unique buildings and outdoor spaces of the Square Mile with an extensive artistic programme including music, dance, walks, talks and visual art.

Our Children's Parade is a highlight of the Festival each year and in 2015 will see hundreds of children from schools and organisations all over London process through the streets of the City.

We will be documenting the Parade with photographs and we require your permission to allow your child/children's photo to be taken.

Please complete the photography permission form below and return to the City of London Academy Southwark ASAP.
