Online Learning

A big thank you to all of you who have been joining in with our live lessons on Google Classroom, whilst it has been a great pleasure teaching the children online we are really looking forward to welcoming all the children back on Monday!!

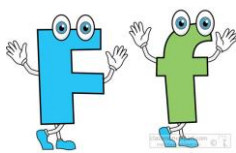

In the event of a bubble closure we will resume our online provision via Google classroom.

Our week

We have been reading a different story each day from Julia Donaldson's Tales from Acorn Wood collection. The children absolutely love these books and they have helped support the teaching of rhythm and rhyme during carpet and focus sessions. We have also been matching numerals with objects to five and beyond, segmenting and blending sounds orally and practising balancing and different exercises daily, not to mention celebrating World Book Day yesterday!!

HOME LEARNING

Sound of the week

We are reintroducing our sound of the week and next week it will be the sound 'f', please could you work with your child to find something in your house that starts with the sound 'f' and send a picture to your class teacher. This will be used both in class and in our live lessons
