Sound of the week

Our sound of the week will be the sound 'j', please could you work with your child to find something in your house that starts with the sound 'j' and send a picture to your class teacher. This will be used both in class and in our live lessons

Ladybird: nsymes@bessemergrange.southwark.sch.uk

Butterfly: pmucci1.210@lgflmail.org

Our Week

This week we have continued our underwater theme and have been reading the book Tiddler. Can your child tell you what happens to Tiddler in the story? We have been exploring body percussion in phonics and had fun using different types of body percussion to accompany some nursery rhymes and songs.

Talk about the importance of timings in cooking, sleeping, playing, screen time etc.
